Sr. Edna and Sr. Esther, Hospitaler Sisters of Mercy, from New Jersey, will be talking about their missions with their work in service of seniors, the sick, and the disenfranchised. Today they operate missions in over 15 countries worldwide.

Some of the missions include:

- Care of the sick and elderly
- Provide homes and education for orphaned and homeless children
- Conduct empowerment programs for women & families
- Provide medical care to those suffering from leprosy
- Operate rehabilitation centers for those afflicted by addiction
- Offering food, clothing, and education to families in need
- Giving a loving and safe home to juvenile victims of human trafficking
- Spreading the love of Jesus through Faith formation and Evangelization

There will be a second collection for the Sisters. Please, be generous. Thank you.

I Said A Prayer For You Today

I said a prayer for you today
And I know God must have heard.
I felt the answer in my heart,
Although He spoke no word.

I didn't ask for wealth or fame
I knew you wouldn't mind.
I asked Him to send treasures
Of a far more lasting kind.

I asked that he be near you
At the start of each new day
To grant you health and blessings
And friends to share your way.

I asked for happiness for you
In all things great and small,
But it was for His loving care
I prayed the most of all.

Meditation of the DayThirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The synagogue official and the woman with the hemorrhage are convinced that God "formed man to be imperishable" - an imperishability that begins now in their present plight. How can they be so sure? Because they have encountered Jesus Christ, to whom they entrust their lives. God made the human person "in the image of his own nature." It is to that relationship with the Infinite that this man and this woman appeal with infinite hope, confident that the Lord will draw them clear, preserve them from the pit, and change their mourning into dancing.
