Altar servers, Communion students and Confirmation students are especially welcomed.

NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

Jesus told the apostles, "As the Father has sent me, evens so I send you. (Jn 20:212). As we have seen, the entire paschal mystery of Jesus' passion, death, resurrection and Ascension is made present to us in the Eucharistic liturgy so that we can be more deeply incorporated into Jesus' life and mission. The more deeply the Eucharist unites us to Jesus, the more we will radiate his life and his love in the world around us. The closing line of the liturgy, therefore, is not an aimless dismissal. It is a dismissal with a mission. It is a sending forth of God's people to bring the mysteries of Christ into the world. Challenge yourself: How can I share the fruits of the Mass with the people that I meet?"

St. Mary's Men's Group will be hosting a Rosary on Thursday August 8th at 6:00pm in the Cafe tent. We will be praying for a safe and successful bazaar and also pray for all those who have worked to make the bazaar possible. All are welcome to attend. Any questions call Ken Klawiter (607) 321-1639.

*Meditation for Sunday, August 4, 2024What is this? (Exodus 16:2, 12-15)

Interesting question! The Israelites had complained that they longed for bread. And God promised to give them their fill of bread. So why were they puzzled by what they saw that morning in the desert? Because what God provided for them didn't look like any bread they had ever seen. In fact, the name of this mystifying substance, mana, is a clever play on the Hebrew phrase man hu, which means "What is this?"

The crowds in today's Gospel had a very similar response. They wanted Jesus to feed them again, as he had done miraculously the day before (John 6:10-13). But instead of food, he offered them the Bread of Life, his own body and blood. Jesus was promising to feed them in a completely different way than they had expected, and that didn't make sense to them. You can imagine them asking, "What is this?"

It can be a challenge to recognize how God is providing for us, especially if our prayers aren't answered in the way we desire. Or when our hearts are set on one thing, but God gives us something different. And when God provides for us in ways we don't expect, we might ask, "What is this?"

Nowhere is this more clear than when we receive the Eucharist at Mass. What might look like simple bread and wine is actually Jesus himself, who heals, forgives, and brings life. We might come to Mass looking for one thing, only to find that Jesus offers us something deeper. We want answers, but he gives us his very self. We want a way out of a problem, but he gives us his grace to walk through it. In this unlikely form of bread and wine, we find the One who is the answer to all our needs!

So let's trust that God knows the sustenance we need. He hears the cries of our hearts and he provides for us in ways we could never imagine. Let's open our hearts to receive the Bread of Life that he gives us today!

"Jesus, help me to receive what you provide for me."
