Is There a Catholic Approach to Scripture Study?

St. Paul's and St. Mary's RCIA group will present a combination of 4 video /discussions over three evenings on the World of the Bible. These sessions are designed for anyone who wants to know more about the Bible but does not know where to begin. No previous Bible study is needed. We will take you on an interesting journey from the world of the Hebrew and Christian scriptures to the religious life and political climate of the days of the historical Jesus.

We will meet in the rectory so seating is limited. Call Mary at 607-722-6492 if you plan to attend.

Dates: Wednesdays, September 18, and 25
Where: St. Paul's Rectory meeting room
Time: 5:30 p.m. – 7 p.m.

BIRTHRIGHT VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Birthright relies on the dedication, time and talents of Volunteers. We welcome any and all individuals who share our philosophy and commitment to offer loving, confidential and non-judgmental support to those who are pregnant or think they may be pregnant. So, if you have a listening hear and feel a tug in our direction, prayerfully consider volunteering. Call our office for hours and then come visit.

Meditation for Sunday September 15, 2024The Son of Man must suffer greatly...and be killed (Mark 8:27-35)

How did Jesus know that he would die? Was it because, as a man, he saw his disciples' weak faith as a hint of what would happen when they faced opposition in Jerusalem? Most likely, it was a combination of both, we won't know the full answer this side of heaven.

But what we do know is that, fully aware of what would happen to him, Jesus kept going. He kept preaching the unlimited mercy of God, a message that somehow provoked many of his listeners to anger and confounded even his closest followers. He kept teaching and forming them, the very people he knew would betray, deny and abandon him in his hour of need. He knew how it would end, but he didn't turn aside from his mission.

This is the measure of Jesus' love. Even though he knew he would die a lonely and agonizing death, he still chose to walk the path all the way to the cross, the revelation of that love would ultimately pierce his disciples' hearts and transform them.

And it did. Seeing the risen Jesus on Easter Sunday changed everything for them. After all the ways they had failed him, he still came back and offered them the same love he had shown them all along. He still came back with the assurance of his forgiveness despite their sin. He still came back and entrusted them with the mission of sharing this love with the whole world. He even gave them his own Holy Spirit to empower them for this mission!

Jesus wants to do for you everything he did for his disciples. No matter what you have done or failed to do, no matter what you will do or fail to do, his love continues to flow out of you. Gaze at his cross today and receive that love!

“Jesus, I praise you for the victory, and steadfastness, of your love for me!”
