Is There a Catholic Approach to Scripture Study?

St. Paul's and St. Mary's RCIA group will present a combination of 4 video /discussions over three evenings on the World of the Bible. These sessions are designed for anyone who wants to know more about the Bible but does not know where to begin. No previous Bible study is needed. We will take you on an interesting journey from the world of the Hebrew and Christian scriptures to the religious life and political climate of the days of the historical Jesus.

We will meet in the rectory so seating is limited.
Call Mary at 607-722-6492 if you plan to attend.

Date: Wednesday, September 25, 2024
Where: St. Paul's Rectory meeting room
Time: 5:30 p.m. – 7 p.m.

Please note, this is the last Wednesday of Scripture Study.

It's not too late to join us!!

CONGRATULATIONS TO THOSE

Meditation for Sunday, September 22, 2024, Mark 9:30-37

If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all. (Mark 9:35)

The first shall be last? This is one of those sayings of Jesus that goes against our natural desires. We don't want to be the last one in line, and we certainly don't want to be the servant! So how can we become the humble servants that the Lord is calling us to be?

Jesus provides an answer at the end of today's Gospel passage: "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me" (Mark 9:37). Jesus is telling us that he is inseparable from his people. He loves us so deeply that he died for us and came to live in our hearts.

So what we do for others, we are doing for Christ. This truth should revolutionize the way we interact with the people around us. Think about it: if Jesus walked through our front door today, we would immediately get busy addressing his needs. "Come in, Jesus; sit down, Jesus. You look hungry; I'll make you anything you want to eat." We would be so quick to serve him that we just might overwhelm him with our kindness! But when we see a brother or sister in need, we often, either explicitly or implicitly, weigh our options: Does this fit in my schedule? How much will this cost me? What will I get out of this in return?

God is calling us out of any selfish regard for ourselves and into a selfless love for others. Today, ask for the eyes to see other people the way God the Father see them: as another Christ. This will paint everyday situations in a new light. Christ is the lonely parishioner who is looking for a friend; he is the sick neighbor who needs a meal. When you are serving such people, you are serving the Lord himself!

"Lord Jesus, teach me to imitate you, the King who came to serve and not to be served."
