Meditation for Sunday, October 27th, Mark 10:46-52*Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you. (Mark 10:49)*

Bartimaeus was desperate. He wanted Jesus to heal him, so he cried out repeatedly, "Son of David, have pity on me," (Mark 10:47, 48). The people nearby were clearly annoyed at his persistence. But when Jesus responded to Bartimaeus' cries, they changed their tune. Now they were his advocates, telling him, Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you: (10:49).

Today, let these onlookers give you the courage and the encouragement you need to come to Jesus with your own needs.

Maybe, like Bartimaeus, you've cried out for Jesus to heal you, but it seems he hasn't answered your prayer. So you've resigned yourself to your circumstances. You don't want to keep asking, just to be disappointed once again. Take courage! Jesus is calling you. Keep coming to him in faith. Believe in his love and his desire to heal. As you wait for him to answer your prayer, know that he will give you comfort and consolation to sustain you.

Maybe you're ashamed of your sins and are afraid to confess them. Or perhaps you are still carrying the guilt of past sins that you've already confessed. Take courage! Jesus is calling you. He wants you to come to him and receive his mercy, not just once, but every day if necessary.

Perhaps you feel too weak or ill-equipped to be a disciple of Jesus. Or you're afraid that family and friends will judge you if you talk about your faith too openly. Take courage! Jesus is calling you. He wants you to ask him for whatever you need, whether that's strength, boldness, or a particular set of gifts and talents, so you can follow him.

Today at Mass, imagine Jesus asking you the same question he asked Bartimaeus: "What do you want me to do for you?" (Mark 10:51). Don't be afraid to tell him! Know that he is pleased when you come to him with your every need!

"Jesus, give me the courage to trust in you!"
