

A Thanksgiving Prayer
May our home be full of joy,
May our hearts be knit with love,
As we give our grateful thanks
For Thy blessings from above.

Give thanks to the LORD, who is good,
whose mercy endures forever.

Meditation for Sunday, November 24, 2024, Christ the King Revelation 1:5-8I am...the one who is and who was and who is to come. (Revelation 1:8)*

Today's feast of Christ the King marks the culmination of everything that our readings over the past month have been leading up to. Even as we live in the "already" (Jesus has come!) and the "not yet" (Jesus will return and establish his reign forever!), we take time today to declare that Jesus is King, both now and forever. He is "the one who is and who was and who is to come" (Revelation 1:8).

Just as Jesus is our eternal King, his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom. It reaches beyond time and space. And its population is unique: the "poor in spirit" are given places of honor, along with those who mourn and who are meek and lowly of heart (Matthew 5:3-5).

So what does it mean for us to be citizens of this wonderful, everlasting kingdom? How can the "already," the "right now," and the "not yet" truths of this kingdom affect our lives?

Jesus has already freed you from sin by his blood (Revelation 1:5). You can receive this freedom by faith and Baptism, by repentance, and by staying united to him through the sacraments.

Nothing can separate you from his love (Romans 8:39). Today, right now, you can invite Jesus to remove any barriers that keep you from experiencing joys of his kingdom.

You will one day reign with the Lord (2 Timothy 2:12). It's awe-inspiring to think of, but in Jesus' kingdom, "Whoever humbles himself will be exalted" (Matthew 23:12). If you try to stay close to him in this life, he promises to give you a place near him as he reigns eternally (25:34).

Rejoice today that Jesus is your eternal King. Invite him to reign in your heart even more, as you await his reign of love over the whole world.
