Meditation for Sunday, December 29, 2024, The Holy Family - Luke 2:41-52

Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house (Luke 2:49)

Isn't today's Gospel comforting? If the son of God, his sinless mother and his saintly foster father misunderstood each other, there is hope for all of us!

As we celebrate the feast of the Holy Family, we hear the story of Mary and Joseph finding Jesus at the Temple, perhaps the most relatable anecdote from Jesus's life. Twelve-year-old Jesus stays behind instead of leaving Jerusalem with his family. His parents anxiously search for him everywhere. Finally they discover him sitting in the Temple among the teachers, speaking with a wisdom beyond his years. Mary and Joseph voice their worry, but Jesus replies, "Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" (Luke 2:49). Of course they didn't know! How could they? Jesus was a mystery, even to his parents.

Luke tells us that Mary and Joseph took Jesus home, still not understanding what had happened (2:50). How long would it take for them to grasp the mystery of who their son was? They probably spent many years praying and pondering the Scriptures under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. But despite their incomplete understanding, they lived faithfully, loved each other patiently and trusted in God's plan for their family.

It's not easy to love and understand the people in your family and it's not easy to keep trusting God in the confusing times. But take heart: he is with your family! You have received the same Holy Spirit that lived in Joseph, Mary and Jesus. That spirit can give all of you gifts of understanding and love, of patience and forbearance. You may not be the perfect family, but you can become a holy family as you grow "in wisdom, age and favor" (Luke 2:52).

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, pray for us!
