Meditation for Sunday, April 6, 2025

Forgetting what lies behind but straining forward to what lies ahead...(Philippians 3:13).

St. Paul's description of his life in Christ can sound like a burdensome set of rules: accept the loss of all things; share in Jesus' sufferings; forget what lies behind; strain toward God's upward calling.

But Paul was happy to do all of this. Why? Because he had been changed. He had encountered Jesus, experienced his mercy and was convinced that his new life was infinitely better! The imprint of Paul's experience of conversion on the road to Damascus and every choice he made to follow Jesus thereafter, transformed his perspective. The entire direction of his life was different.

You can imagine something similar happening in the heart of the woman caught in adultery in today's Gospel reading. Her sin was laid bare before Jesus and she was about to be killed by an angry mob. But she received God's unexpected and surprising mercy as Jesus dispersed the crowd and said to her, "Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more" (John 8:11). Surely, empowered by Jesus's words, she gladly accepted the loss of her old way of life, just as Paul had. She was happy to forget the emptiness of what lay behind her and by God's grace, to strain toward his upward calling of a life free from her past sins.

How have you encountered Jesus? You might have decided to give your life completely to him at a pivotal point. You might have brought a burdensome sin to Confession and been convinced of God's forgiveness and love. Maybe you're longing for an even deeper encounter right now!

These experiences can change your heart and shape your perspective. They make losing your life for Jesus - even when it involves difficulty - completely worth it! You, like Paul, can hold onto the "supreme good of knowing Christ Jesus (your) Lord" (Philippians 3:8).

"Jesus, I will follow you!"
