

Thanksgiving Day Prayer

Lord, we thank you for the goodness of our people and for the spirit of justice that fills this nation. We thank you for the beauty and fullness of the land and the challenge of the cities.

We thank you for our work and our rest, for one another, and for our homes. We thank you, Lord: accept our thanksgiving on this day. We pray and give thanks through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Thanksgiving Dinner Prayer

Lord, we thank You for this meal and every blessing You provide. Whether in abundance or simplicity, help us to remain grateful, content, and mindful of Your provision. May our hearts overflow with thanksgiving, and may our actions reflect Your love. Teach us to recognize Your goodness in all circumstances and live each day in faith, humility, and joy. Amen.

Are you interested in praying the rosary every Saturday? (8AM - 9AM)
Our St. Paul's Rosary Group is looking to welcome new members to their group!

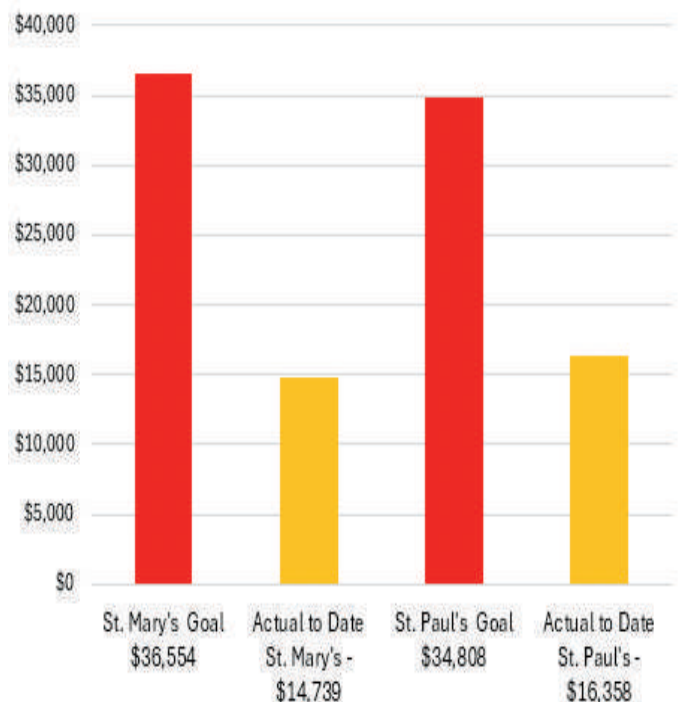

Besides coming together to pray the Rosary each Saturday - they gather to do many other things in prayer.

If you are interested, please take an information sheet which can be found on the radiators by each exit.

Meditation for Sunday, November 23, 2025

Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom. (Luke 23:42)

Every year on Holy Thursday, the king or queen of England distributes gifts to various men and women who have demonstrated "outstanding Christian service" by making a difference in the lives of their local communities.

This image of a good and generous king is appropriate today, even if it isn't Holy Thursday! That's because today marks one hundred years since Pope Pius XI established the feast of Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Today, instead of considering an earthly king, we turn our attention to the "King of kings and Lord of lords" (Revelation 19:16), whose "kingdom will have no end" (Nicene Creed).

Jesus, our King, came to give us greater gifts than any gift an earthly king could ever give. In today's Gospel, in fact, we see him giving the gift of eternal life to the "good thief" who is crucified next to him. Then, dying on the cross, he gave us the greatest gift: his own life for our salvation. And from that point on, he has been continuously offering us his love, mercy, and forgiveness. As Pope Pius XI proclaimed, Jesus came, "not to be ministered unto but to minister," and to give himself "as a model of humility" (Quas Primas, 20). What a wonderful King we have!

When the thief on the cross asked Jesus to remember him, Jesus promised, "Today you will be with me in Paradise" (Luke 23:43). Let's follow this man's example and honor our King by surrendering our lives to him. Let's open our hands and receive his overflowing gifts of mercy, love, and forgiveness. Most of all, let's praise our King for giving us the greatest gift of all: eternal life!

"Lord Jesus Christ, you are my King. I surrender my life to you."
